

C255-CO Saint James way

Via Podiensis from Aire sur l'Adour to St Jean Pied de Port

Via Podiensis is one of the four main pilgrimage routes to the Spanish sanctuary of Santiago de Compostela from Le Puy en Velay, a Marian sanctuary since the fifth century. Since the Middle-Ages, millions of pilgrims have left from Le Puy to journey to the Spanish Galicia, at the extremity of the Iberian Peninsula, to venerate the relics of Saint James, one of Christ's apostles. This pilgrimage is today registered on the World Heritage list of UNESCO. From Aire-sur-l'Adour, you will progressively bring yourself to the base of the Pyrenees Mountains. You will cross the vineyards of Le Tursan, next through La Chalosse – a region of grain-production and animal breeding –, and then the forests of Le Béarn. Your hike will bring you finally to the green hills of the Basque Country. To the south of Saint Palais you will notice the Cross of Gibraltar, the supposed meeting point of the different pilgrimage paths of Santiago de Compostela. These paths bring pilgrims from all over Europe to Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port, the last stop of the route in France, and the limit of Via Podiensis.

Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrival at AIRE SUR L'ADOUR. An ancient city built on the site of a Gallic oppidum, Aire has had an active history that spans many centuries. Today, a few signs of the past are still evident in the city, of which the most famous is, without argument, the Sainte Quitterie Church, built in the 13th and 14th centuries. It has a gorgeous Gothic façade, and, hidden away in the darkness of the crypt, the 4th century burial place of Sainte Quitterie, sculpted out of a brilliant white marble. The lower city is home to the Saint Jean Baptiste Cathedral, the ancient rectory (now transformed into the town hall), and a beautiful octagonal grain market. Dinner, Lodging and breakfast in a 2-star hotel

Day 2 - AIRE – MIRAMONT (20 km – 5.30 hour walk). You will have time this morning to continue to discover the main monuments of the city before starting the walk. Don't miss the cathedral and Ste Quitterie church which houses a beautiful white marble sarcophagus in the crypt. You will begin by crossing Le Tursan, a vast, multicolored plateau planted with corn, tobacco, and vineyards which produce Tursan-AOC. You will cross the village of Latrille with its typical church and some hamlet before reaching Miramont where is located the guest house Dinner, night and breakfast in a charming guest house at Miramont

Day 3 – MIRAMONT – FICHOUS (24 km – 6.30 hour walk). You continue the trail to Sensacq. Here, you will visit the small, Romanesque church which houses Carolinian baptismal fonts. Next on the route is Pimbo, a village perched on a lush hilltop. It is one of the oldest villages of Les Landes, having been founded in 1268. Its church dates to the 12th century. you will head to Arzacq Arraziguët, an english bastide (walled town) before entering Bearn and walk through beautiful and picturesque villages like Louvigny which had a fortified castle destroyed by Richelieu. Finally you will reach Fichous-Riumayou and its church. Transfer by taxi to Arthez de Bearn - Dinner, night and breakfast in a charming guesthouse in Arthez

Day 4 – FICHOUS – ARTHEZ DE BEARN (21 km – 5.30 hour walk). Transfer by taxi from Arthez to Fichous in the morning. You will walk to Larreule and his church, the only remains an abbey founded at the end of the 10th century. This church dominates the village surrounded by ditches that keeps traces of bastide (walled town) it became in 13th century. In Uzan, you will visit a small, rural church and fountain, both of which were dedicated to Sainte Quitterie. You will walk through the vast valley to the small villages of Poms and Castillon, and then climb to the chapel of Caubin, the remains of what was once a sign of the prosperity of the Order of the Malts, also a hospital. You will continue on to Arthez de Béarn, a small city perched above the Gave Valley. Dinner, night and breakfast in the same guesthouse

Day 5 - MASLACQ – CASTELNAU CAMBLONG (24 km – 6.30 hour walk). Transfer by taxi from Arthez to Maslacq. Once past Maslacq, the path climbs up towards Notre-Dame-de-Muret. The oratory was built in the 1930's on the site of one of the oldest sanctuaries of the Béarn region and on the ruins of an ancient convent. Crossing fields and hills, you will reach the Laà Valley and the Sauvelade Abbey, founded by the Benedictines in 1128 and taken over by the Cistercians at the end of the 13th century. The monastery that lies adjacent the church dates to the 17th century. You will continue your hike across the wooded hills towards Boussac and Méritein, in the Gave d'Oloron Valley, and arrive in the end at the ramparts of Navarrenx. The city was fortified at the end of the 16th century, based on an Italian model, and holds two principal doorways, one facing France, the other towards Spain. Spend time visiting this interesting beautiful village, the lovely church and military buildings, the Arsenal, the powder magazine, the barracks, and the recently restored military fountain. Then you will leave the city through the Porte Saint Antoine and cross over the Gave River by a bridge whose grand arch dates to the 13th century to reach Castelnau Camblong, 2 km away. Dinner, night and breakfast in a charming guesthouse

Day 6 – CASTELNAU – AROUE (18.5 km – 5 hour walk). You will leave the village of Castelnau-Camblong, one of the last Béarnais villages on this hike. Passing through forests and fields, you will come to the Château de Mongaston and will then cross over the Saison, the border between Le Béarn and the Basque Country. You will continue through Lichos to Aroue. A taxi will then bring you to Saint Palais for the night. Dinner, lodging and breakfast in a 3-star hotel in Saint Palais

Day 7 - SAINT PALAIS– LARCEVEAU (18 km – 5 hour walk). You will join the route of Santiago de Compostela heading to Gibraltar, a place where a stone marker indicates the assumed point at which the three northern pilgrimage routes – Le Puy, Vézelay, and Tours – join to form one path. You will climb to the Soyarza Chapel and continue towards the small village of Harnabeltz. Here is located the Saint Nicolas Chapel, the last remains of a Benedictine priory and hospital. You will next arrive in Ostabat, once an important center for the gathering of pilgrims coming from different corners of Europe. Your day will end at Larceveau, where you will overnight. Dinner, lodging and breakfast in a charming guesthouse

Day 8 - LARCEVEAU – SAINT JEAN PIED DE PORT (19.5 km – 5 hour walk). The last stage of the Pilgrimage of Santiago de Compostela on French soil! The landscape is breathtaking and the route takes small trails and paths in the countryside. The path will lead you to discover beautiful villages full of historical richness. You will arrive in Saint Jean le Vieux, the last roman village before entering the Pyrenees Mountains. You will follow the banks of the Laurhibar River into Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port, a small, 14th century village on the banks of the Nive River. The higher city is encircled by ramparts and was crossed by many pilgrims' journeys. They entered by the Doorway of Saint James, passed before the church of Notre-Dame, passed over the old medieval bridge to cross the Nive River, and left again through the Doorway of Spain to ascend the Pyrenees Dinner, lodging and breakfast in a 4-star hotel

Day 9 - SAINT-JEAN-PIED-DE-PART. Tour ends after breakfast.
